

High Uintas target area (black outline) and approximate site locations (squares); site names beginning with "H" are specifically designated for the High Uintas program, although sites beginning with a "W" can be used to seed this target area as well.